BY VINCENT TREANOR.

BELMONT PARK, May 27.—In as thrilling a finish as has been BELMONT PARK, May 27.—In as thrilling a finish as has been seen in a steeplechase this year Paul Rainey's Sanctus won the International Steeplechase here to-day from a field of six clever jumpers, while 12,000 persons cheered themselves hoarse encouraging him in his final strides. Sanctus and Bayonet were about equal favorites in the betting with Economy the best backed of the others.

After three false breaks, a thing that odds-on favorite, and those who didn't have the backet of the paper. After three false breaks, a thing that has not been seen before this year, they got away in good shape. Delcanta dsplaying all his old-time speed, at once the front and with Bayonet at the back him went to Precentor for the back and that's the order in which they finished. They ran one-two all the way, with Connaught Ranger third until the last furlong. Then Fayette came with a rush and took third money. up led over the first jump. The four Ladies' Stakes Easy for Stamina.

raced at top speed to the last jump.

Ladles' Stakes Easy for Stamina.

There was one withdrawal from the Ladles' Stakes and three added starters, ever in the running. Delcanta and Bayenet, kead and head, cleared jump after jump, with Grandpa and Sanctus next, until the last turn of the field.

Dupec Gets Bus,.

There Dupec on Sanctus got busy. He sent the Rainey horse up and with Bayonet going stride with him, they raced at top speed to the last jump.

Great Finish in Fifth

Great Finish in Fifth.

Bavonet going strde with him, they raced at top speed to the last jump. There Sanctus gained a trifle, but Bayonet came again on the flat and forced Dupes to a hard drive. Sanctus answered gamely and finally got home a length to the good, while Bayonet beat Grandpa about that distance out for third money.

Betty Vincent Left at Post.

There was plenty of excitement, also plenty of disappointment for favorite players in the opening event. In the first place Betty Vincent was left standing at the post, and then just as the barrier went uo Clockwork bolted, threw his jockey, jumped the fence and may be sunning yet. After all that the odde-on favorite, Royal Captive, showed in cont, with Taboo right at her heels. At the upper stand Taboo closed on the finish. Nigger Baby finished.

Books Get a Trimming.

Great Finish in Fifth.

There was another rousing finish in the fifth race that brought spectators to their feet. Four of the six horses that went to the post were heavily abacked.
